

Rep. Holt met with members of the Red Bank Rotary Club Thursday at the organization's weekly meeting. Holt updated Club members on his work on their behalf, including helping to pass emergency funding that will keep 3,900 New Jersey teachers in the classroom. He also spoke about new Wall St. reform enacted to put cops on the financial beat and provide new consumer protections for Central New Jersey families. Holt answered questions from members, including questions about the economy.