

Last week, Rep. Holt joined eight other Members of Congress writing to President Obama to praise his efforts along with those of the intelligence community and armed forces in bringing Osama bin Laden to justice. The letter also urged President Obama to withdraw all troops from Afghanistan that are not crucial to the immediate national security objective of combating al Qaeda. Click here to read the text of the letter.