

On Tuesday, September 20, I had the opportunity to speak with thousands of residents of central New Jersey in a telephone town hall event. We discussed a range of issues pending before Congress, including disaster relief funding to aid in the recovery from Hurricane Irene and legislative efforts to create new jobs.

To listen to an audio recording of our conversation, click here .